PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

“Transforming Lives Through the Good News of Jesus Christ”

ARDMORE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Ardmore, Pennsylvania

10:30 A.M., NOVEMBER 1, 2020

Worship Service

In these challenging and uncertain times, I am hopeful that you can connect with the church community in this new “virtual” way, to be led in the worship of God, to feed your soul and find solace and hope. As those who believe in the resurrection, we are called to be “Easter People.” That means we have hope, even in the midst of difficult times. We act out of God’s love for us in the way we treat others, even when we are feeling scared. Our God is a God of power, and love and hope. God conquered death for us in Jesus Christ—he will continue to be with us today, tomorrow and every day. Hold on to this hope, and if you are struggling, ask for help. From your family, friends, your church family, or from me. You are not alone.
Rev. Diane Jamison Fitch, Transitional Pastor

We welcome you warmly to Ardmore Presbyterian Church where we strive to be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

We are especially thankful for visitors. If you have a prayer request, please email it to Rev. Fitch at pastor@ardmorepres.org or call 610-642-6650x100.

We are worshipping in our sanctuary on Sunday mornings and require that those attending adhere to our safety protocols which can be found at <https://ardmorepres.org/apc-safety-protocols>.

A recording or live streaming of Sunday’s service will be posted online at www.ardmorepres.org.

Please spread the word to those who are interested in viewing our virtual worship.

LIFE AND WORK OF THE CHURCH

Rev. Diane Jamison Fitch

*CALL TO WORSHIP

For all the saints, who from their labors rest,

We give you thanks, O God.

Vast is the number of your saints, some famous, most of them unrecorded, except in the Book of Life.

From every people and nation, from every race and tongue,
you have gathered them into your Kingdom.

With your Spirit living in them and guiding them,
they were faithful, compassionate, just, and loving.

In our worship today we remember them and celebrate their faith and witness.

For all the saints,

but especially for those who loved and served you and us within this congregation,

We give you thanks, O God.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious, loving God,

in every age you have raised up women and men to be faithful, loving followers of Jesus, your Son, our Lord.

We confess that we have not always followed their courageous example.

You call us to share with others our faith in you, but frequently we are silent.

You call us to live just and loving lives, but often we hesitate and do nothing because the cost is too high.

You call us to stand up with the least, the lost, and those on the margins, but many times we are afraid and do nothing because the cost is too great.

In your mercy, forgive us, redeem us, remake us.
Lift us up once again, that together with those in the past who have served you with faith, hope, and love, we may live faithful, courageous lives and inherit the eternal life you promise to all who trust in your love and mercy revealed in Jesus, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

THE WORD PROCLAIMED

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

OLD TESTAMENT READING, Psalm 23 (in Unison)

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM, Quartet Jerusalem, My Happy Home American, arr. James Hopkins

Jerusalem, my happy home,
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?
Thy saints are crowned with glory great;
They see God face to face;
They triumph still, they still rejoice;
Most happy is their case.

There David stands with harp in hand
As master of the choir:
Ten thousand times that man were blest
That might this music hear.
Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
God grant that I may see
Thine endless joy and of the same
Partaker ever be. (16th c. text)

NEW TESTAMENT READING, Revelation 21:1-4, 10-13, and 22-25

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, ‘See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.’ And in the spirit he carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. It has the glory of God and a radiance like a very rare jewel, like jasper, clear as crystal. It has a great, high wall with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates are inscribed the names of the twelve tribes of the Israelites; on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The Michaelson Family (Jeff, Maria Helena and Gabrielle)

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Apostles' Creed)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Crossing the Bar

Valerie Showers Crescenz

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the soundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark;
For though from out our bourne of
 Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Please plan to attend a Congregational Meeting after worship TODAY to elect officers and vote on a proposed change in APC's by-laws to permit voting online.

The sanctuary flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Swartz by Mrs. Thomas Birdsall.

Today's guest preacher, Rev. Mike Pulsifer was born and reared in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in history and philosophy from Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri; his Masters of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary; and completed a year of postgraduate work at New College, University of Edinburgh. He and his wife, Marion, whom he has known since the seventh grade, have two sons and five grandchildren who all now live in the Philadelphia area.

Mike has served for 52 years as a Presbyterian minister in churches in El Reno, Oklahoma; Indianola, Iowa; Santa Ana, California; Ridgewood, New Jersey; and Ardmore, Pennsylvania. He is now retired and serving on a part-time, voluntary basis as Pastor for Outreach at the Arch Street Presbyterian Church in center city Philadelphia.

Mike enjoys spending time with his family; fishing; reading novels, history and theology; working in the yard and garden; traveling; and going to movies. He is a lifelong fan of the University of Oklahoma football team and the Los Angeles Dodgers baseball team.

Empowered by God—Responding by Grace

“Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking” (2 Cor. 8:7).

In this challenging year, we have indeed been EMPOWERED by GOD to find ways to safely continue to worship and gather and be church, in a new and different way. You have RESPONDED by GRACE through giving of your time, energy, care and funds to share God's message of love and Christ's gift of forgiveness. As we move into this time of Stewardship, I hope you will prayerfully consider what APC means to you, and how you will continue to support the ministry of Jesus Christ. We will dedicate all our pledges on Stewardship Sunday, November 8th.

Grace & Peace, Pastor Diane

We have EXCITING NEWS from Our PNC

The PNC is happy to announce that we have extended a call to a candidate for Senior Pastor and he has accepted, subject to a Congregational vote. This call was extended by unanimous vote and it was an “enthusiastic” unanimous vote.

While we cannot share the identity of the candidate at this time, we are excited to do so shortly.

In early November, the PNC will e-mail a packet which will include a cover letter, biography of the candidate, his Statement of Faith, terms of call, and video which will introduce him to all of us.

It is hoped that you can participate in the November 15th Congregational Meeting—either in person or virtually.

The Congregational Nominating Committee has met regularly and has prayerfully reviewed the church membership. We are grateful that the persons listed below have indicated their willingness to serve. Please hold them in your prayers.

This year we have asked the prospective church officers the following questions and their answers are what is shared under their names.

When and how did you come to be a member of APC?

How have you been involved in the life of the congregation?

Please tell us three things about yourself (family, hobbies, career, etc.)

What is most exciting or life-giving about being a member of APC?

As Elders (Class of 2023):

Jody Brumbach (Returning for a second term.)

I joined APC 32 years ago. I had been attending the Roman Catholic church (husband's background) with my young children and was not comfortable. I did church "shopping" and found APC to be warm and welcoming.

I taught Sunday School for many years and have helped with Wednesday PLUS. I became a Trustee and an Elder when the two boards were merged. I have served multiple terms on the Session. I have served on many different committees and am currently the Moderator of the Fellowship and Outreach and Personnel Committees. And, of course, I play Handbells!!!

I retired two years ago, have two grandsons (ages 6 and 4), own a farm in Gettysburg (not much farming going on) and spend time at both the farm and our home in Havertown.

I view the congregation of APC as my family. Love and support abound!

Anne Conroy

I moved from NY State to Waverly Heights in Gladwyne with my husband, Gene, in 2013. I chose to join APC because I thought the congregation was active and engaged, I loved the music program and was moved by the warmth and kindness of Rev. Hodsden to my special needs grandchild. Gene passed away two years ago, but I have a daughter who lives in Berwyn and a son who lives in Ithaca. I enjoy the Wednesday Noon Bible Study and I am a member of the Mission Awareness Committee; help organize the Advent Alternative Gift Market and am particularly rewarded by my work with the FIRST PLACE Task Force. I have always been involved as a board member and volunteer in various non-profit organizations, including serving as a member of the Session at First Presbyterian Church in Poughkeepsie, NY. For fun, I love outdoor recreation of virtually any kind.

Elaine Giese (Returning for a second term.)

I came to the church via the Preschool where all our daughters were students. We started attending Sunday services and learned that the church provided a loving environment for adults as well as children.

I was on the Board of Trustees and then transitioned to the Session when the trustees were incorporated into that group. I sing in the Choir, ring in the Handbell Choir and participate in Bible Study.

I like to read, cook and knit. I enjoy travelling and being at the beach. I love spending time with my family. Sharing in the joys and concerns of fellow church members, supporting each other through all the challenges of life, worshipping together and watching each other grow in our faith are life giving blessings of APC.

Barry Jeffries

After visiting several churches in the area, I began attending APC in 2003 and joined in the Spring 2004. I was attracted initially because of the worship and preaching led by Rev. Bill Proctor and Rev. Jonathan Fettig, and the kindness and warm welcome given by the congregation.

Over the past year I've served on the Pastoral Nominating Committee. The most longstanding involvement is with the Chancel Choir which began with our 100th Anniversary choir trip to Scotland. I have served as a Deacon and have an active involvement with our landscape and garden, working with the Building & Grounds Committee and various Shine-Ups to keep it in good shape.

I work as a site planner and landscape architect for the Montgomery County Planning Commission. My household includes my best friend, Islay, a sweet, Boxer girl. My hobbies include painting, drawing and sharing the gardens and nature of the Morris Arboretum and the Wissahickon Valley with our members and guests as an interpretive volunteer guide.

Two things that are the most life-affirming: First, the opportunity to journey and grow in faith along with fellow members and experience this through our Christian education and the Spiritual Enrichment retreat and programs. Second, participating and singing with the Chancel Choir and our music offerings are especially meaningful. They move you and prepare us for worship in ways that words alone can't.

Donald Poorman (Returning for a second term.)

I attended APC as a child and was confirmed as a member of APC's Confirmation Class of 1969.

I am currently Clerk of Session and have served with that body for several years. I have also served on the Deacons and various committees of the church. I have sung bass in the Chancel Choir for 40 years.

I am blessed to be loved by my wife Sherina, my three daughters Holly, Carol and Anna, my two sons-in-law, and my six grandchildren. I am a lawyer and have served as an administrative law judge for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for 30 years. I like local history, old cars and trains, and cycling (anything local, old or with wheels).

It is life-giving to be with others as they worship and share their faith in Jesus Christ. I feel the Holy Spirit is working in our midst when we experience the love of God together through praise, prayer, and study of scripture. I feel blessed to have been sustained in my faith by many faithful members both now and in the year's past.

As Deacons (Class of 2023)

Kristy Cobb

I joined Ardmore Presbyterian in March 2002 with my husband, Chip, and my children RK and Kayla (Tyler wasn't born yet). Chip and I started attending APC shortly after 9/11 and instantly felt welcomed into the congregation.

I have served as a Sunday School teacher, a VBS volunteer and as co-leader of the Weekday Preschool Parent Group when my children attended the preschool.

RK and Kayla are currently attending the University of Pittsburgh and Tyler attends Haverford High School. I am a CPA and have worked for a public accounting firm, an insurance company, a chemical company, and currently as a business manager for a small Catholic school. I enjoy exercise and have been a group fitness instructor for 23 years.

I enjoy being an APC member and am thankful for all the opportunities for families and children at the church—from the Preschool, to Sunday School, to VBS and Youth Group. I feel that the church has helped my children grow up with a strong faith foundation.

Graham Fuller (Returning for a second term.)

I met Pastor Hodsden when he was the Chaplain for the Merion Fire Company of Ardmore, where I volunteer as a firefighter. 2015 was the 125th anniversary of the Company and I was fortunate to have several dinners with him that year. I thought it would be interesting to hear Pastor Hodsden preach and one Sunday came to hear him. His sermon hit home with me and I became a Sunday regular. I joined Ardmore Presbyterian Church on November 20, 2016.

I am fortunate to have served as an usher, something I truly like to do. I have also assisted as a leader with the Alpha Program at APC and I always enjoy the Shine-ups.

I am married to Beth Fuller; my son Matthew is 14 and my daughter Libby is 8 and we live in Ardmore. I am a project manager specializing in the transportation of commercial wind energy components from manufacturer to project site. I volunteer at the Merion Fire Company of Ardmore as an Assistant Chief.

The people are the most exciting and life-giving part of being a member of APC. Being involved with the people at APC is amazing. There are so many people doing so much good for those in our Church, our community and beyond. I am fortunate to give what time I can to work with this remarkable group of people.

Isla Grant

Randy and I started coming to APC in 1993 looking for a church home for our two young daughters, Margaret and Robie then two and five. We joined the church in 1994 and I have served as a Deacon and a member of the investment committee for ARDPRES. I also taught Sunday School for several years.

I work as a Senior Trust Officer at Bank of America's Private Bank where I have been for over 20 years. The office is based in West Conshohocken though I've been working remotely since March.

I am married to Randy Lawlace and my daughter, Robie (known to most in the Church) lives nearby in Wyndmoor and my daughter, Margaret lives in Cincinnati, OH.

APC has been a wonderful community to belong to over many years.

Anne Toal McComskie

I was baptized at APC and became an official member after going through confirmation in 2001.

As a kid I attended Sunday School, and as teen I attended youth group/choir and served as a VBS counselor. Currently I serve on the Fellowship and Outreach Committee and am a coordinator/administrator of the new APC website.

I am a graphic designer for Drexel University, and I also do freelance work. I enjoy doing design work that involves lettering or illustration. My husband and I got married 2x at APC! We just bought our first house and are excited to move in and make it our own.

I am excited to carry on my family history of being members at APC. I am a fourth-generation member! I really love APC's Christmas and Easter services, especially all the music associated with those seasons. I enjoy the community at APC and all the ways members can serve according to their interests and skills.

EARLY BIRD ADVENT PLANS

APC does not want Advent activities to pass us by due to Covid-19. Traditionally, during Advent and Christmas most of our activities have required close quarters; therefore, an alternative activity has been planned. This year the fence will be garlanded with pine ropes and bows. We are inviting families and individuals to add their touches in proclaiming the Good News of the birth of Jesus to the community.

We hope you will be willing to create word images to be placed along the fence. We will provide all supplies to draw, saw and paint words on 1/4 inch plywood. Safe, manual scroll saws (with a saw use video) created by Sherina Poorman will be provided with directions, ideas, wood and paint to create words such as JOY, HOPE, LOVE, PEACE, NOEL, etc. They should be completed by December 6 for our socially distanced Advent festivities when they can be ceremoniously attached to the fence among the greens.

Please contact Sherina Poorman or Anne Foote to reserve your words. Supplies can be picked up at the church or delivered if you prefer. We anticipate that these individually created words will show the living Christmas spirit abides at APC and the Pandemic will not impede our joy.

The following weeks are available for dedication of our sanctuary flowers:

Nov. 8 and 15.

Please contact Raelyn at 610-642-6650 to schedule.

Lift your prayers this week for: Our Church Family, Pastor Nom. Com., World Leaders & Health Care Workers, Spencer Collman, Dr. David Githii, Joe Hartnett, Julie Patterson, Christopher Rowe, Kossi and Josephine Sedzro. Ongoing Prayers for: Kate Brooks, Rosemary Fischer, Sandy Foote, Twila Garletts, Claire Hammonds, Mary Schreiber, Kathy Toal. In prayer for those grieving the loss of someone they love. Friends/Family: Pastor Diane's mother Polly Jamison, Danielle and Baby Raelyn, Irena Reynolds' (Preschool Admin.) brother-in-law Mike. Prayer for those battling cancer. APC mission partners: APC Preschool, Ardmore Food Pantry, Caring Hands Ministry (in India), First Place, Interfaith Hospitality Network, Kuwadzana Presbyterian Church (in Zimbabwe), Maternity Care Coalition, Medical Benevolence Foundation, Pre-Med Hospice Ministry, Teachers' Teammates, The Welcome Church, Welcoming the Stranger, and West Kensington Ministry.
